Highest Praise For U. S. Fleet

British Commander Warmly Commends Destroyer Flotilla. New Methods Used.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—The work of the American naval flotilla in European waters again has been warmly commended by Vice Admiral Bailey, the British official in charge of the general operations of the submarine fleet. Information reaching here today states that the British vice admiral has sent to Admiral Benson, now in Paris, a lengthy communication reciting notable work by various units of the American squadron and praising Vice Admiral Sims and a number of his subordinates.

The American destroyers in addition to their general work of escorting transports and merchant vessels through the submarine zone now are taking over certain sections of the French and British coast as their own and are operating there with sea planes and new types of submarine catchers.

The American, British and French anti-submarine squadrons are now carrying the war directly to the submarine. They have adopted new plans, which officials here today said are most effective.

German yards are reported to be again working night and day turning out submarines of the biggest type, presumably for a general raid in mid ocean and possibly on the Atlantic coast of the United States in the spring.

Forger is Given a Light Sentence

George B. Nelson, Aged 72 Years,
Pleads Guilty in Circuit Court.

George B. Nelson, a negro, 72 years of age, pleaded guilty today in the circuit court to the charge of forgery and was sentenced to thirteen months penal servitude.

Nelson forged the signature of Sol Sykes to a check for $150, and the signature of Sam Frank to two checks, one for $3.65 and the other for $5.50. The checks were drawn on the City National Bank, the payee in each instance being different. The offense occurred in April.

Other cases disposed of by the circuit court were:

Robt. Roan, S. W.; not prosed.

John Alexander, vagrancy; not prosed.

Aaron Blankenship, failure to dip cattle; not prosed.

Newt Biddick, selling whiskey; fined $50 and sentenced to six months on the road, the road sentence being suspended.

Jim Etta Owen, assault to murder; fined $20.

Will Hardley Hang on November 30th?

All Depends on Whether or Not He Has Made an "Escape" in the Eyes of the Law.

Will Walter Hardley, negro, desperado under sentence of death, be hanged on November 30? This is the question that is agitating the condemned man, and that is also interesting officers of the law.

Hardley's attorneys have filed an appeal to the supreme court, which ordinarily would automatically suspend his sentence. However, he has twice tried to escape from jail, and the law denies the right of appeal to prisoners under sentence of death in the event of an escape.

Solicitor Almon has certified to the attorney general the fact that Hardley once escaped from the jail but was recaptured. On whether or not this offense can be defined as an "escape" depends the longevity of the noted criminal.

Germans Charged With Four Wrecks

(International News Service.)
Victoria, B. C., Nov. 27.—Charges that there is more behind the wrecking of the steamers Alai, Manhattan, Mariposa and Spokane on the Alaskan coast than mere accident, are being made here by survivors who arrived on the steamer Princess Aloce. Investigation by salvage experts has failed to divulge the real reason for the wrecking of any of these ships.

MARTIAL LAW FOR ATLANTIC PORTS

Piers and Docks to be Protected
Against German Incendiaries.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—All harbors on the Atlantic coast capable of docking a 500-ton ship soon will have their water fronts put under martial law. The department of justice today is receiving detailed information regarding docks and piers of all Atlantic seaport towns. Drafting of regulations will be undertaken at once and regular troops soon will be on hand to challenge all those seeking to approach water fronts where docks or piers are located. After Atlantic water fronts have been put under martial law, the plan will extend to Gulf ports and then to the Pacific coast.

Money is Plentiful; Prisoners Are Scarce

Money is so plentiful in Morgan county that Sheriff Forman is no longer able to turn in a good sized feed bill. There are at present but eight persons confined in the bastille, most of these being negroes. Of the sixty arrests made following the return of 106 indictments by the last grand jury, every man taken into custody made bond. Some of those indicted are pleading guilty and paying the fines and costs while they have the money.

It's just a question of general prosperity. Everybody can make bond or pay a fine.

Montgomery After Aviation Field

(International News Service.)

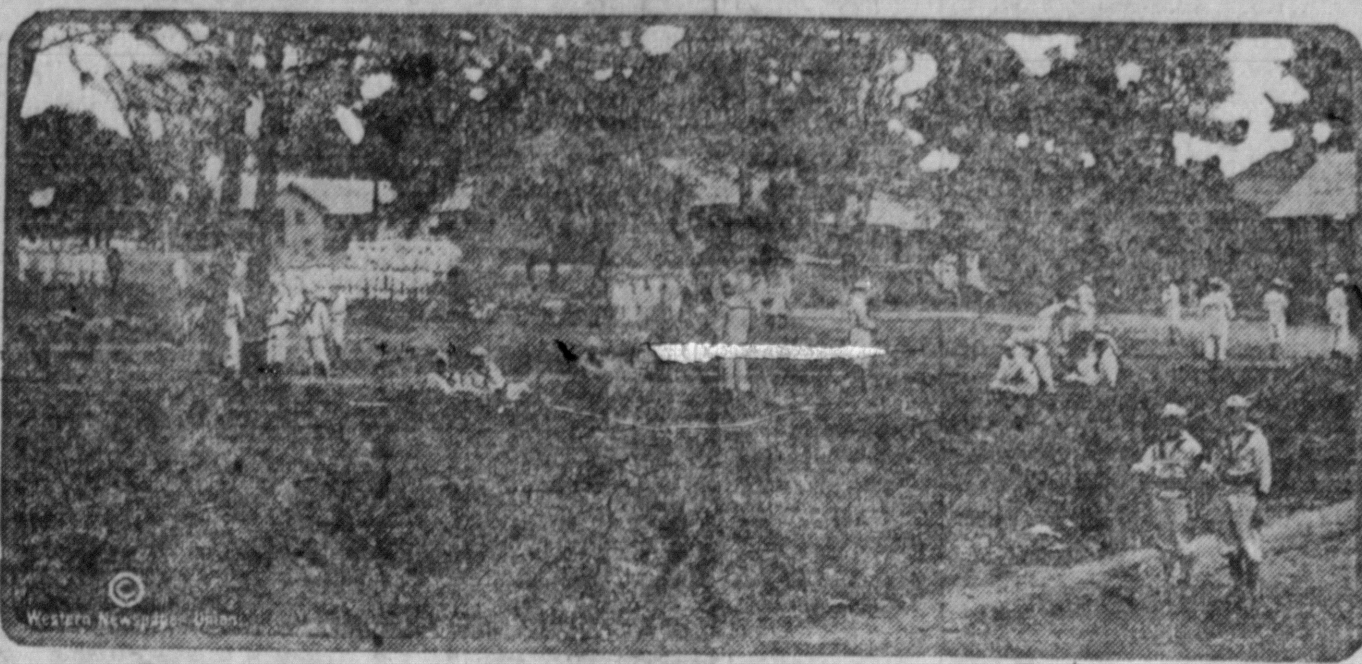

Washington, Nov. 27.—Recommendations by officers of the signal corps that an army aviation field be located at Montgomery, Ala., were before Secretary of War Baker today. It may be several weeks before any action is taken upon them.

Suffs Released; Reason Unknown

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—Twenty-two militant suffragists serving terms varying from 15 days to 7 months, were released from the district jail this afternoon. Nine militants still remain in jail. Among those released were Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the woman's party. No reason for the release of the prisoners was given by the authorities.

THREE CAPTAINS FOR THIS COUNTY

BURLESON, SKEGGS AND DOSS
GRADUATE FROM OFFICERS'
RESERVE WITH HONORS.

Three Morgan county men—Frank Skeggs, of Albany, son of Judge and Mrs. Wm. E. Skeggs; Richard Burleson and J. V. Doss, of Hartselle, were commissioned as captains in the national army by the officers' reserve training school at Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga. A Chattanooga special published in yesterday's Daily stated that Messrs. Skeggs and Doss were commissioned first lieutenants, but telegrams from the two men corrected the error.

The splendid showing made by the young officers reflects great credit not only upon themselves but upon the county.

There were but 25 captains commissioned from the state.

Other officers commissioned from this county were:

Gorman Jones, Decatur, second lieutenant, infantry.

Jesse F. Gurley, Somerville, second lieutenant field artillery.

Charles Saunders, also of Albany, although registered from Birmingham, was commissioned a first lieutenant of infantry.

Little Rock, Nov. 27.—Officials of the local board of aviation today announced that an aviation landing station has been authorized for Little Rock.

POWER COMPANY TO FURNISH JUICE AT MUSCLE SHOALS

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 27.—Negotiations are now under way between the war department and representatives of the Alabama Power Company to obtain the necessary power to run the proposed nitrate plants at Muscle Shoals.

If the negotiations are successfully concluded, a new steam plant will be erected in close proximity to the Birmingham district to furnish this power, and a large sum of money will be expended for that purpose.

Both President Mitchell and General Counsel Thomas W. Martin, of the Alabama Power Company, are out of the city, and are not expected to return before the end of this week, having been engaged in the negotiations at Washington and New York, as well as attending a meeting of the board of directors at New York, where this matter is also to receive consideration.

W. J. Henderson, who is President Mitchell's assistant and personal representative, admitted that negotiations were now under way to obtain the contract for the furnishing of the power for the Muscle Shoals nitrate plant.

"Yes," said Mr. Henderson, "we have submitted tentative propositions at the request of the government, and would, of course, be more than pleased to do all we can to aid the government in carrying on the work of the nitrate plant successfully, but no definite contract has as yet been closed, as far as I know."

"However, if the matter should be concluded, and the probabilities are that it will, we will have to erect another steam plant to obtain the additional power and, in view of the present congested condition of the railroads, it would no doubt be advisable to erect such a plant close to or within this district."

"We expect to be able to make a more definite announcement in the near future, but for the present everything is still in a tentative stage."

GERMANS MAKING DESPERATE EFFORT TO SAVE CAMBRAI

Von Hindenburg Orders Stronghold Retained Regardless of Cost

THE INVASION OF ITALY HAS FAILED

Six Hun Divisions Shattered Already in Supreme Effort to Drive South

(International News Service.)

Berlin, Nov. 27.—There is no change in the situation on the Italian front, the German war office announced today. British forces under cover of darkness attacked German positions at Bourlon wood and at the village of Bourlon, west of Cambrai, but were repulsed.

(International News Service.)

London, Nov. 27.—Reforming their shattered forces, the Germans renewed their counter attacks in front of Cambrai during the night, but all were repulsed, the war office announced today. British positions in the northeast corner of Bourlon wood were heavily assaulted, but the attacks were crushed. So long as the British retain Bourlon wood they can rake Cambrai with their artillery fire.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—From the Asiago to the Piave the Austro-Germans have suffered appalling losses without gaining any advantage, according to an official cablegram from Rome today. Between the Piave and the Brenta, the enemy has already worn out six divisions, these dispatches to the embassy state.

HINDENBURG ORDERS CAMBRAI HELD REGARDLESS OF COST

(International News Service.)

London, Nov. 27.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, the driving force of the great German machine, has ordered that "Cambrai be held to the last man," according to statements made by prisoners captured in the fierce struggle raging around Bourlon wood.

As the German line in the west stands today, the fall of this stronghold would be a strategic calamity to the Germans, and the divisions battered in the British drive against the Cambrai defenses are being re-formed and sent into the fray as fast as the officers can perform the task.

ALLIED VETERANS NOW FIGHTING WITH ITALIANS

(International News Service.)

London, Nov. 27.—Seasoned French and British veterans who have faced German drum fire, poisoned gas and liquid fire on the western front, are now joining the Italians in counter attacks against the Austro-German invaders on the Asiago plateau. Advances from the front today told of the arrival of fresh reinforcements.

The formidable Austro-German attack between the Piave and Brenta valleys have continued, with the Teutons maneuvering to deliver a crowning blow. So far the gallant resistance of the Italians has frustrated all German plans. There is heavy fighting around Monte Tomba, which is regarded as the critical point. If the Germans and Austrians could break through there and overrun the plains it would seriously threaten the Italian line on the Piave by cutting communications. Bulgarian troops are reported to have reinforced the Austro-German armies on the upper Piave and in the Monte Pertica sector.

SMOOTH WOULD REPEAL POSTAL RATE INCREASE.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, member of the finance committee and one of the foremost financial experts of congress, reached Washington today and again declared his intention of offering a series of amendments to the revenue bill, among them one repealing the second class postal rate increases. He declared income levies should be lowered.

Daily Late Owing To Press Troubles

Owing to press trouble, the Daily missed the mail trains Friday and Saturday of last week. The mail trains were made yesterday, but the city delivery was delayed until far after dark. This was due to the fact that Frank Inman, who has been in charge of the big Duplex press for some years, was drafted last week for military service, and it was necessary to train a green man, which requires time. However, the Daily has been so fortunate as to secure the services of Clarence Ryan, of Bessemer, an experienced pressman, and trusts that all deliveries will be made on time hereafter. It asks the indulgence of its patrons.

Decorations Given To Brave Sammies

(International News Service.)

With the American Army in France, Nov. 26.—(Delayed.)—Standing on the top of a snow-flecked hill, a major general this afternoon personally presented French citations and the Croix de Guerre to three American officers, four non-commissioned officers and eight privates of a certain company which, when attacked, by the Germans, suffered the first losses in the fighting on Nov. 2-5.

Football Game Here On Thanksgiving Day

Hartselle and Moulton Elevens to Clash at Y. M. C. A. Park.

The stellar sporting event of the season, locally, will be the football game to be played Thanksgiving day at the Y. M. C. A. park, Albany, with Hartselle and Moulton as the clashing aggregations.

Owing to the fact that the two elevens are athletic rivals with many old grudges to settle, the game will be spirited. It will be fought out on neutral ground in order that neither team may have the advantage of undue home environment.

In addition to a large attendance from both Hartselle and Moulton, Albany and Decatur football fans are expected to be numerous and conspicuous at the game.

THE BOLSHEVIKI "BAIT"

Probably the most audacious proposal made during the entire war is that of the Bolsheviki. This aggregation of anarchistic criminals, patriotic degenerates and Kaiser-servers has suggested to the United States that all the nations with armies in the field enter into a ninety-day armistice for the discussion of peace. Such a sinister suggestion, coming from so corrupt a source, is a reflection upon the intelligence of the nations approached.

It is evident that Lenin and his bunch of pick-pockets and sand baggers know but little of the ways of the world. On a black night, in a dark alley, they might be depended on to render their master—the Kaiser—some effective service, provided they could catch Uncle Sam with his back turned. In the broad light of day, and disguised as diplomats, they show as much capacity for leadership as would stable boys or butlers.

A ninety-day armistice! During that time the one million German prisoners interned in Russia could have rejoined their regiments; the dwindling morale of the Hun armies could be restored; the empty grain bins of the Fatherland could be filled; propagandists could have leisure in which to do their deadly work.

The allies have long known Lenin as a traitor. They now get a near-up of him as a fool.

"I have given up cigars and am donating the money saved to the 'Y' war fund," is the statement of one Albany resident. And he isn't the kind of a man who has to be "smoked out" either.

Two good reasons why Alabama fell behind on its Y. M. C. A. war fund drive were Mobile and Montgomery, both of which were very vigorously in their contributions.

The worst form of "slacker" is the citizen who doesn't have to go, and who won't send his money.

Patriotic conversation is a very poor camouflage for the owner of the bank roll who never contributes to any of the war funds.

The Bolsheviki proposal that the warring nations grant a ninety-day armistice while they discuss peace is very crude bait for the hungry German hook.

The onion eaters might Hooverize to the extent of having occasional "breathless days."

A Nashville candidate for magistrate has twice been defeated by one vote. Such modesty!

General Byng probably knew before he gave his famous order, that all "tanks" can be depended on to do their "damndest."

It will be much easier to observe Thanksgiving Day if the Italian lines hold.

Again we note, that the Mighty Haig shows the Germans how to back up.

Gompers is both a field and mine marshal.

Compared with Lenin, the Kaiser is a gentleman.

Time Limit Causes Rush to Volunteer

Forty-Nine Men Accepted This Month at the Decatur Station.

The order prohibiting the acceptance of registered men for military service as volunteers after Dec. 15, has given recruiting at the Decatur station and at the Albany postoffice an unprecedented impetus. In addition to a number of men who have been accepted by postmasters and a large contingent for the navy, forty-nine men have been accepted this month at the Decatur army recruiting station.

The order limiting enlistments, is as follows:
To All Recruiting Officers of the Army:

1. Under the new regulations approved by the president, no registrant may enlist voluntarily in the military service of the United States from and after Dec. 15, 1917, except that "under such regulations as the surgeon general may prescribe, and upon receiving permission from the surgeon general to do so, any medical student, hospital interne, dentist, dental student, veterinarian, or veterinary student may enlist in the enlisted reserve corps of the medical department.

2. All recruiting officers will be governed accordingly, and no registrant will be accepted after such a date that there is not reasonable assurance that the enlistment will be completed before December 15th. In the meantime the provisions of the present regulations that a man who has been called for physical examination by his local board is ineligible for voluntary enlistment, will be carefully observed. By order of the secretary of war.

Adjutant General.

ALBANY GROCER THANKFUL

"I had been sick nearly 20 years with stomach trouble and was slowly starving to death, as everything I ate caused terrible gas and pain, and my food did not digest. I was reduced to 115 pounds. A friend advised me to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy about four months ago, which I did, and now weigh 151 pounds, and can eat anything. I am very thankful for Mayr's Wonderful Remedy." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. S. M. Thompson, Albany; Owl Drug Co., Decatur. (Adv.)

"Truant Soul," Walthall's Masterpiece. Greatest Photoplay Star Eclipse Past Work in Essanay Feature.

Henry B. Walthall's greatest photoplay is "The Truant Soul." Mr. Walthall's work in former productions has made him the foremost screen actor in the world. And now in this Essanay super-feature, he has eclipsed himself. "The Truant Soul" was written by the world-famous author, Victor Rousseau.

It is a photoplay that shows all the horrors of a man of fine sensibilities tormented by the demons of drug. It emerges from the blackness of a Poe to the sublimity of a Tennyson.

Mr. Walthall has poured his whole soul into this production. He has given everything that his experience and his genius has to offer, and he says:

"It is my masterpiece."
The story is that of a great surgeon, a genius, a man of fine instincts, but who has a hidden second nature. He performs wonderful operations, he does inestimable good for mankind, but sudden periods come over him when he reverts to the primitive type. He is possessed of temporary atavism. He sinks into the lowest kinds of vice. He is cruel, heartless, vindictive, unscrupulous. He reverts to the cave man, to the animal, where might is paramount, and he blasts lives and love without compunction. He is the personification of Dr. Jekyll or Mr. Hyde, but Rousseau has woven an entirely different story around the character.

The strange reversion grows until the once noted surgeon has sunk to the lowest depths. He is confined in a sanitarium. There a wonderful woman—a nurse—recognizes his genius, sympathizes with his terrible despair, and nurses him back to mental, moral and physical health. He wins life and love at last.

GOBELET-SHIRE

NOV. 20.

A beautiful wedding took place yesterday in the early evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shires, Long street, when their youngest daughter, Miss Goldia Gladys, became the bride of Dr. Obed Dubard Gobelet of this city.

There was a yellow and white idea of decoration throughout the reception rooms culminating in an elaborate arrangement in the parlor, where the ceremony took place. Here ferns were in a corner of the room massed in pyramid shape and formed a background to a yellow and white trellis work arch, ivy-trailed, and caught with two big love knots of yellow tulle. White pedestals flanked the arch holding silver candelabra filled with yellow tapers. Yellow chrysanthemums were used in quantities about the reception suite. Quite a number of guests were present and were received by the mother and sisters of the bride, Mrs. Shires, Mrs. Dave Lyeria, Mrs. Benson of Water Valley, Mrs. Harvey of Albany, Ala. Mrs. Ed Price presided at the piano, giving the Wedding March, and during the ceremony softly rendered "A Perfect Day." Miss Lois Buchanan sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile," and Mrs. Harry McKimm, of Illinois, gave "I Love You Truly." The charming songs preceded the marriage.

The only attendants were two children—little Lucile Smith, in white organdy and lace with yellow bows, carried a basket from which she scattered yellow and white chrysanthemum petals, and Robert Harvey, a nephew of the bride, dressed as a royal page, bore the wedding ring on a small silver tray.

Following them, the bride came down the stair with the groom, and crossing the hall to the parlor, they stood facing the arch as the officiating minister, the Rev. Mr. Freeman, of Brownsville, said the solemnly beautiful ceremony uniting their lives.

The bride wore a dress for traveling of battleship gray, hat of gray lace and fur, gray shoes and gloves and a corsage bouquet of Bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

In the hall a bridal register was kept by Miss Mary Louise Weber, and here also punch was served, presided over by Misses Martha Lou Williams and Hattie Mai Manley.

The bride is much loved among her many friends, and the groom is a well-known business man and optician. A large number of lovely gifts were shown.

Dr. and Mrs. Gobelet left for a southern bridal tour, and on their return will be at home for the winter at the Walton hotel—Jackson (Tenn.) Sun.

ELBA'S VALUABLE IRON MINES

Some of Purest Metal in the World is Found Here, Although in Small Quantities.

"It must be admitted that the English have not been very generous," remarked Napoleon as he surveyed his kingdom of Elba from the top of its highest peak. Yet a man more modest than the great Corsican might have been well content with this fair and rich little island, to say nothing of the title of king.

Elba today has come into a new importance, owing to the war stimulated values of its iron mines. Some of the purest iron ore in the world is found here in beautiful crystals, although the quantity is not great enough to be of any wide significance.

The little Isle includes all manner of little industries in its 10 by 12 mile confines. On the lower slopes there are fertile little valleys, and along the beach a tiny fishing industry manages to thrive. Besides the iron mines there are famous stone quarries, and the scenery is rugged and imposing on a miniature scale. Had Napoleon been a philosopher he might well have found contentment here.

But Napoleon was a general and a builder; instead of settling down to enjoy what the gods had left him, he instituted all manner of projects for development in his tiny kingdom, and even conducted from here his least known campaign. Across the blue waters to the south of Elba is visible the smaller island of Pianosa, low and fertile. Pianosa was deserted in those times on account of the depredations of Mediterranean pirates. Napoleon directed an expedition of 40 men against the corsairs with the object of adding Pianosa to his kingdom. He probably would have led the pirates a hard life had not the opportunity for escape presented itself that led to France and Waterloo.

Mrs. Donnell Tells of Big Red Cross Meet at Birmingham

Not a Woman's Gathering, But a Conference in which Great Things Were Planned. Two Million Members Campaign

Mrs. J. H. Donnell was among the Red Cross workers who attended all the sessions of the state Red Cross convention which has just closed its sessions at Birmingham. On request Mrs. Donnell obligingly furnished a statement of her impressions of the convention. She speaks of the December drive for 2,000,000 Red Cross members, gives sentiments from Henry P. Davidson; speaks of the need of a Red Cross committee to meet all troop trains, and of the privilege it is for all to help in the Red Cross work.

Mrs. Donnell gathered from the speakers that unless all do their full duty America cannot hope to win in the world war.

The message of Mrs. Donnell from the convention is as follows:

This convention was perhaps the most enthusiastic that ever met in Birmingham. All the delegates were brought together by one great purpose, viz:—How best to alleviate suffering and aid in the cause of humanity. The speakers stated plain, practical facts, impressing on all the necessity of every man, woman and child joining in this great work, and showed that this war cannot be won unless all do their best. All will have to give, give, give, and keep on giving; will have to work, work, work and keep on working, and even after this war is won there will be a great work for us all to do. It was impressed that it was a privilege for us to be able to aid in this great work. Every stitch we take, every bandage we fold and every garment we sew will give to us the assurance that we have helped to make one of our boys more comfortable.

Never before in all the ages has the call come to each individual to serve as it does today. We can all do something. Every individual has been called to the colors. We are all drafted, not for military duty, but home service. Henry P. Davidson, head of the Red Cross' practical work, said the boys in the cantonments are in need of every loving service we can give them. There are thousands of boys who never even get a postal card. Some of them pass us on the streets and we give them no look of appreciation.

When the troop trains pass through we must appoint a committee to meet the soldiers and hand them a stick of candy, a postal card, a bag of tobacco or just anything to let them know we are thinking of them. The reports from throughout the states were most inspiring, showing what women can do when their hearts and souls are in the work. But this was not a woman's convention, they were only the helpers. The nation's most competent business men were at its head. Henry P. Davidson held his audience spell-bound, telling of the service of the organization—only 25,000 members a year ago—now increased to 600,000. A membership drive will be put on in December to increase the membership to 2,000,000. America is now third as a nation in Red Cross work. We must be first.

MRS. J. H. DONNELL.

Negroes Riot at Tennessee Prison; Guards Kill One

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 27.—Will Whitfield, a negro convict at the state penitentiary, is dead, and Savoy Bentley and Will Ross, two other negro prisoners, were shot in a riot which was participated in by 600 of the negro prisoners in the dining room of the main prison at the supper hour yesterday afternoon.

The riot started just after a negro, Lad Bradley, had been taken from the dining room by Guard Ed Mosier on account of engaging in boisterous conversation during the meal, considered a serious breach of discipline. Mosier started from the dining room with the Bradley negro and the negro tried to overpower him. During the scuffle Mosier's gun fell from its holster to the floor and was discharged. This attracted the attention of E. G. Brown, the steward, who was in the kitchen at the time. He rushed to Mosier's aid, and by the time he got to the men the negroes were on their feet, rushing toward the door, throwing dishes and yelling.

"Kill 'em! Kill every one of them," they were shouting.

Guard S. H. Jordan, who was standing near the door, picked Mosier's gun up from the floor and began firing into the crowd. He fired three shots and hit the three negroes. This turned the mob and they started toward the rear door. Another of the guards who had been attracted by the noise, succeeded in attracting the attention of the guard on the wall, and with his help succeeded in stopping them. Immediately other guards appeared on the scene and the negroes were marched back to their cells.

ATHENS BOY HAS REACHED FRANCE

BUTLER HINE CABLES HOME-FOLKS OF HIS SAFE ARRIVAL ABROAD.

Athens, Ala., Nov. 27.

A cable to homefolks from Butler Hine says: "Arrived O. K." He is now "Somewhere in France" with the Alabama boys.

John Beattie reached Athens Saturday night from Waco, Texas, on a ten-day furlough, much to the joy of his family and friends. He had the misfortune to break his shoulder and three ribs, so has been in the hospital for some time. He says it is worth it all to get back home, though.

The M. E. church combined the Sunday school and church services on Sunday and had a patriotic Thanksgiving program, under the very able direction of W. K. Greene, superintendent of the Sunday school. The church was crowded, the Sunday school roll being 336 in attendance. The services were both interesting and instructive and enjoyed by all. The handsome decorations were used with the flags of our allies and our national colors.

Lewis Collins is home on a ten-day furlough.

Mrs. Childers, nee Miss Bettie Hine Richardson, is expected for Thanksgiving, as is also her brother, Charles, from Camp Wheeler. This is Mrs. Childers' first visit since her marriage, and she will be given a most cordial welcome, as not a more popular girl ever left Athens than Bettie Hine.

Miss Cora Lee Stonestreet will spend Thanksgiving with homefolks. She comes from Massey Business College, Birmingham, where she is taking a course.

Mr. and Mrs. Beattie and family and Miss Clara Hine, with Mrs. Cressy, motored to Decatur this week.

THANKSGIVING MUSICAL.

The First Presbyterian choir of Decatur, assisted by the best outside local talent, will give a Thanksgiving musicale at the church on Thursday evening at 7:30. The public is cordially invited. There will be no admission charged, but a free-will offering will be taken at the close of the service. A full program will appear in Wednesday's Daily.

ANNUAL SUPPER.

The Lutheran church will hold their annual supper and bazaar, Nov. 30-Dec. 1, in the Murray building, next to E. S. Johnson's. Chicken and oysters will be served. Tickets, 35 cents. Many beautiful articles suitable for Christmas presents will be on sale at low prices. (Adv.) 27-5t
